

10 REASONS TO GO!

1. Because... Jesus commanded us to go. This command was for all who claim to be His followers. We can only get to know His heart when we get to know His hearts desires.
2. Because... There is a great need in the world today. We need God to break our hearts for a lost world. This can only happen by experiencing and seeing lost souls firsthand. He wants to break our heart for the whole world, not just America. Three billion people have never heard the message of Jesus and they do not live in the United States.
3. Because... It is exciting and adventurous. This trip will stretch your faith and build the character of God in your life.
4. Because... It will produce great memories. This is a chance for you to go with many of your friends around the world to impact a nation for the glory of God. This trip will be something that you will never forget. It will cause you to remember the great and wondrous works of your Heavenly Father.
5. Because... It will open your heart to God's heart. On this trip, you will witness enormous needs firsthand. The Lord will begin to speak to you. You will get to know His voice and recognize His heart cry.
6. Because... This trip is not only a great spiritual experience, it is a chance for you to see other cultures, historical places and meet some of your Christian brothers and sisters in another culture.
7. Because... This trip will allow you to experience God's power in numerous ways:

Miracles	Signs and Wonders	Salvation
Answered Prayer	God Using You
8. Because... This trip will develop unity and love between you and other team members. Through working together, sharing your faith together and being involved in all kinds of different situations, unity is accomplished.
9. Because... This trip will produce in you a compassion for a broken and bruised world. Compassion is not sympathy. Neither is it pity. Compassion is a gut-wrenching sense of the needs of others that motivates us to action.
10. Because... Never has there been an opportunity to travel the globe so easily, quickly and without much sacrifice. We must seize the opportunity granted to us and walk through the open doors that God has provided. You're the first generation to have the opportunity to "Go" so easily into the entire world and preach the Gospel.
