

Relationships

For this outreach to be success in your life it is imperative that you keep your relationships in tack. GeoBound has listed some practical ways to keep to stay on track while doing God's work :

Relationship with God

- Be faithful in keeping your personal devotions.
- Keep an active prayer life at all times. Pray without ceasing.
- Seek to exalt Jesus in everything you do and say
- Give God glory in everything that transpires. Know that His will is being accomplished in your life (Romans 8:28:1 Thessalonians 5:18)
- When you are unsure, fearful, or hurt, talk to Him immediately

Relationship with Team Members

- Never lose sight of the team concept
- You cannot, must not do your own thing.
- Pray daily for your team members.
- Remind yourself that you have strategic role as a member of the team
- Be sensitive to the needs of others
- Learn to sacrifice for others.
- Be flexible at all times
- Love people at all times. Remember love covers a multitude of sins.
- Pray together with the team twice daily.
- Do not talk about problems you are having with one person to someone else. Deal directly with the person with whom you are having the problem .
- Be punctual and on time to keep from creating division among team members.
- Do not gossip or slander others on the team

Relationship with the Host Pastor (s), Nationals or Workers

- Respect, honor and love them .
- Remind yourself that they are the reason we are in their nation.
- Avoid at all cost an attitude of superiority
 - By what you say
 - By how you act
 - By body language and facial expressions

Relationship with Leaders

- Serve your leaders
- Pray for your leader.
- Encourage leaders daily.
- Do not question their authority or decisions.
- Remember leaders are not perfect. They will make mistakes

- Pay attention when leaders give instructions
- Do what the leaders ask you. Serve!

Ten Commandments of Missions Trips

1. Thou shalt always be a servant .
2. Thou shall eat what is set before thee.
3. Thou shall not demand thine own way.
4. Thou shall never be late.
5. Thou shall accept all responsibilities with joy.
6. Thou shall always demand more of thee self than others.
7. Thou shall not forget thy personal belongings.
8. Thou shall pray and read God's World daily.
9. Thou shall keep yourself clean and pick up after thy self
10. Thou shall love all those you come in contact with.

Above all else remember... this is time designed and set aside to reach the lost. All other activities recreation, relationship, etc., are secondary. At no time will we neglect the work of our primary objective: Winning The Unsaved To Jesus Christ .
